ADVOCACY WORKSHOP

FOR FOOD BANKS, FOOD PANTRIES & FOOD SECURITY ADVOCATES

How Proposed State & Federal Tax Policies May Harm Your Work

WHEN:

Tuesday, January 9, 2018
10am – 12pm

WHERE:

Roadrunner Food Bank
5840 Office Blvd. NE,
Albuquerque

This advocacy workshop is for food bank and food pantry operators in the Albuquerque area, as well as community leaders and organizations focused on advocating for food access and food security.

JOIN US TO LEARN:

What The Policy Threats Are around the reinstatement of a food tax and the removal of the nonprofit gross receipts tax exemption.

What The Dollar Impacts Are of those proposed policies on food banks and food pantries and the clients served.

What To Do About It and ways to engage staff, community members, and stakeholders to advocate for your communities.

HOSTED BY:

New Mexico Voices for Children

PARTNERS:

Roadrunner Food Bank of New Mexico

McCune Charitable Foundation

TO RSVP & FOR MORE INFORMATION, CONTACT:

Armelle Casau
acasau@nmvoices.org
(505) 361-1279

NEW MEXICO VOICES FOR CHILDREN