

College affordability in New Mexico is out of balance

New Mexico's workforce is out-of-balance with 21st century job needs

But only 58% of New Mexico adults ages 25 and older have at least some post-secondary education.²

77% of projected job openings in New Mexico will require at least some post-secondary education.¹

New Mexico's lottery scholarship is out-of-balance with student needs

31% of the value of the lottery scholarship goes to students from families earning more than $90,000.³

Just 16% of the value of the lottery scholarship goes to students from families earning less than $30,000.

The lottery scholarship does not provide enough financial assistance to the students who need it most—students for whom college is otherwise out of reach.
